CURTIN AHEAD PROGRAM

Curtin Addressing Higher Educational Access Disadvantage (AHEAD) is a collaborative and innovative higher education outreach program that grows the potential of groups and individuals that are under-represented in higher education.

Curtin AHEAD offers a variety of awareness, aspiration-raising, and capability-building projects for school students and people in the community.

FOR SCHOOLS

Curtin AHEAD works in schools to offer comprehensive engagement opportunities that incorporate higher education aspiration-raising and career development advice through innovative class room and on-campus activities.

FOR THE COMMUNITY

Curtin AHEAD works in the community in a collaborative and creative way to identify barriers to higher education. In partnership, programs are designed to increase the participation of individuals and groups in higher education.

CURTIN AHEAD ACTIVITIES

Curtin AHEAD engages with schools and communities through:

- Workshops
- Curtin campus visits
- Parent information
- Sporting activities
- Online learning network
- Vocational activities
- Community forums
- Academic mentoring and skills building
- Prospective student advice
- Career advice
- Regional activities and visits
